Course description:

Based on the thematic course material Nem csak népdalok, published by Debrecen Summer School in 2018, this online course has been designed primarily for intermediate and advanced level students interested in a truly special slice of Hungarian culture. The bilingual course is also open for those whose level of fluency in Hungarian is not high enough as yet to immerse in the topic on their own. Scheduled for a total of 8 practical class units, Not just folk songs offers participants a glimpse at the details of linguistic and civilizational considerations related to Hungarian folk songs. While offering a chance to discuss the phonological properties of the lyrics, interpretation possibilities of content and purpose and the applicability of lexical and syntactic expansion of text chunks, the course will also focus on sharing the joy of singing together. Titles featured include: A csitári hegyek alatt; Általmennék én a Tiszán; Cirnos cica, haj; Erdő, erdő, erdő; Ég a gyertya, ég; János bácsi, János bácsi; Kis kút, kerekes kút; Pál, Kata, Péter; Tavaszi szél.
